SCOUTS GO NUTTING

Heaps of hickory nuts and walnuts are being gathered by Boy Scouts in the hills and mountains of the national forest tree project of the American Forestry Association.National defense advocates believe that preparations are less expensive than reparations.Possible the cracking of the Liberty Bell was an omen of what was to happen to Liberty itself.Observances of all the health rules would probably cause us to live longer than we could afford.The Federal Trade Commission might investigate the fraudulent advertising in political platforms.Many autoists seem to think warning signs at railroad crossings are intended for the locomotive engineer.The electric produced a good many lame ducks, but kept an even greater number of political quacks in Congress.It is said that fading for 15 days will not stop the body's "basic metabolism." Try it, you care for that operator.The world's finest hospitals believed to have been found in a small shack near Newark, N. J., as the apparatus was so arranged that every one in the room could be bottled while the operator reclined on a bed.

THE RISE OF FOOTBALL

College football is still regarded as amateur organization, a spite of the Carnegie Foundation's contention that in many institutions players are to some extent subsidized. But regardless of what the players get out of it, the public has assumed the proportion of a business in which millions are involved.As a recent writer declares, "It is played by the public, which is trained as steam-chasers, and is the most worthless and patriotic reformatory project, and one which should have every encouragement and support."

RED CROSS ROLL CALL

Again the Red Cross is in the midst of its annual roll call, which is now in its 21st year, between Armistice Day and Thanksgiving.It is the task of the support of everyone who can possibly contribute.Communities which have hampped disaster can hardly appreciate the magnitude of work of its forearm, roll call, and understanding.

It averts the curse of winter.

It averts the curse of famine.

It averts the curse of pestilence.
